OBC CELL

The OBC Cell has been established in the college to protect the interests of students from reserved categories and provide support in areas where they face challenges. The committee is responsible for addressing disputes (if any) or violations of the rights of OBC students, faculty, and staff within the institution. OBC cells play a vital role in advancing the welfare and empowerment of students from Other Backward Classes. Through comprehensive support systems, awareness programs, and policy implementation, these cells strive to create a more equitable and inclusive environment. By addressing challenges and strengthening their efforts, OBC cells can greatly enhance their effectiveness and contribute to the overall development of OBC communities.

AIM AND OBJECTIVES

- To provide a platform for addressing complaints and issues: Ensure a safe space for OBC individuals to report and resolve instances of discrimination and difficulties.
- To offer comprehensive support services: Assist OBC individuals with obtaining caste certificates, educational support, scholarships, career counselling, and skill development programs.
- To empower OBC individuals: Create initiatives and opportunities that enable OBC members to reach their full potential.
- To conduct awareness campaigns and programs: Organize events to educate both OBC students and the broader community about the rights and challenges faced by reserved category members.
- To ensure effective implementation of government policies and schemes: Oversee the proper application of welfare measures designed for OBC communities, ensuring they receive the intended benefits.

- To regularly monitor progress and impact: Conduct regular assessments of the effectiveness of various initiatives, collect relevant data, evaluate program outcomes, and report findings to higher authorities to guide future actions.
- To foster an inclusive environment: Promote equality and inclusivity within the institution, encouraging a supportive atmosphere for OBC individuals.
- To facilitate leadership and participation: Encourage OBC students and staff to take on leadership roles and actively participate in decision-making processes within the institution.

THE NATURE OF ACTIVITIES OF THE CELL

Facilitating access to scholarships and financial aid: OBC cells help students from these communities access scholarships and financial assistance, ensuring that financial constraints do not hinder their pursuit of higher education.

- Organizing awareness and training sessions: Conduct programs to enhance employability skills and provide career guidance, including training in personality development, resume writing, interview preparation, and soft skills.
- Providing counselling services and legal assistance: Offer support to OBC members facing discrimination or difficulties to promote mental and emotional well-being, including access to legal advice and support.
- Conducting outreach programs: Implement outreach initiatives to build trust and foster collaboration with the communities they serve, ensuring their needs are understood and addressed.
- Promoting academic excellence: Encourage OBC students to excel academically through mentorship programs, tutoring, and study groups to improve academic performance.
- Facilitating networking opportunities: Create platforms for OBC students and faculty to connect with professionals, alumni, and industry experts, helping them build valuable networks for future career opportunities.
